

September 2012

Dear Student,

On behalf of Wolfram Research, congratulations on your performance in the 2012 BEST Robotics Competition! We are pleased to support this event by presenting you with your own complimentary one-year license of Mathematica for Students 8.0

To get started with your free year of Mathematica, all you have to do is visit the following website and view the free, on-demand screencast. Please use this Code Key to enter the screencast: EFVRH2

The Screencast is here: www.wolfram.com/screencast/topstudents

After viewing the screencast, please click on the screen to receive the complimentary Mathematica license request form.

This license belongs to you. Please do not share it or give it to anyone else.

Please note that this award offer expires on May 1st, 2013. Please follow the steps above to retrieve your license before that date.

We hope you'll also participate in the growing Mathematica community. Here are a couple links that can help you get started:
